

Warshaw Burstein Welcomes Martin S. Siegel as Partner in Litigation Group

New York—January 17, 2020 -- Warshaw Burstein, LLP, a full-service law firm in New York City, has announced that Martin S. Siegel has joined the firm as partner in the Litigation Group.

Formerly, Mr. Siegel was a partner in the litigation groups at Golenbock Eiseman Assor Bell & Peskoe LLP and at Brown Rudnick LLP. He also served as Branch Chief/ Trial Attorney at the U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission in the Division of Enforcement.

His practice at Warshaw Burstein will focus on complex commercial, business, securities and bankruptcy litigations.

“Mr. Siegel is an experienced litigator who has a deep experience in commercial, securities and bankruptcy litigation,” Frederick R. Cummings, Jr., Managing Partner of Warshaw Burstein, said. “We welcome Marty as part of our diverse and talented team of attorneys who together are uniquely qualified to handle the spectrum of legal issues in virtually every major practice area.”

Mr. Siegel has litigated cases in more than a dozen different jurisdictions around the country in various federal and state courts and arbitration forums, including breach of contract, securities, bankruptcy, partnership and employment disputes, restrictive covenants, real estate, insurance, medical and dental products and intellectual property matters. He has prosecuted claims involving securities fraud, M&A, Ponzi schemes and other securities-related issues on behalf of institutional and other sophisticated investors, and has defended public companies and stock brokerage firms, and their officers and directors, in securities class actions and related matters. He also has represented witnesses and targets in SEC and FTC investigations and proceedings, and Audit Committees of public companies in internal investigations under Sarbanes-Oxley, as well as respondents and claimants in FINRA and AAA arbitrations and stockbrokers on promissory note claims by former firms. He regularly litigates a broad range of bankruptcy matters on behalf of unsecured creditors, equity holders and debtors, including fraudulent conveyance, preference, and lender liability issues.

Mr. Siegel also acts as outside general counsel to a number of public and private companies with respect to corporate, securities and business matters.
