

Warshaw Burstein Welcomes Ally Hack as Partner in Real Estate and Litigation Groups

Warshaw Burstein, LLP has announced that Ally Hack has joined the firm as partner in the Real Estate and Litigation groups.

Formerly, Mr. Hack was a member of the Commercial and Real Estate Litigation groups at the international law firm of Cozen O'Connor and he was most recently a partner at a boutique commercial litigation firm.

His practice at Warshaw Burstein will focus on commercial and real estate litigation.

“Mr. Hack developed his practice at an international firm and is an experienced litigator with a primary focus on real estate litigation, both commercial and residential,” Frederick R. Cummings, Jr., Managing Partner of Warshaw Burstein, said. “At Warshaw Burstein, we pride ourselves on cultivating an entrepreneurial environment, which works well for our creative team of diverse and talented attorneys. We welcome Ally to our firm.”

Mr. Hack has extensive experience in state and federal commercial litigation, especially with matters involving real estate assets. Mr. Hack brings to bear expertise in disputes involving all aspects of the real estate industry -- from landlord and tenant, to net-lessor and net-lessee, to buyer and seller, to contract vendor and vendee, to condominiums and cooperatives, to name but a few.

In addition, Mr. Hack lectures and writes on various topics regarding real estate law and has been published numerous times in the New York Law Journal.

Mr. Hack earned his undergraduate degree, magna cum laude, from the University of New Mexico, and was elected to phi beta kappa. He earned his law degree from the Benjamin N. Cardozo School of Law, where, among other accolades, he was a member of the Arts and Entertainment Law Journal. Ally is fluent in Arabic and proficient in Spanish.
