

TITLE IX

Committed to helping you continue to safeguard your future and reputation

www.collegedisciplinelaw.com

WARSHAW
BURSTEIN

COLLEGE
DISCIPLINE
PRACTICE

The Title IX Insider

Welcome

Welcome to the first issue of the Title IX Insider, a periodic newsletter designed to keep students, teachers and faculty, administrators, and educational institutions at both the K-12 level, and at institutions of higher education informed about important updates in the law related to Title IX and college discipline matters.

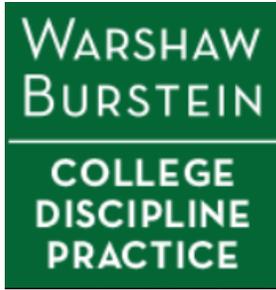

This area of the law is rapidly changing, particularly since the COVID-19 pandemic and the new regulations issued by the U.S. Department of Education on May 6, 2020 to supplement Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972 in response to a pressing need for clarification of the gender discrimination statute that has evolved so far from its beginnings. These new regulations went into effect in August 2020.

Schools, students and faculty now find themselves on the precipice of a new era for Title IX and we will explore the implications of these regulations in future issues.

Warm Regards,
Kimberly C. Lau

WHAT WE DO

Warshaw Burstein's College Discipline Practice is committed to helping clients continue to safeguard your future and reputation. Our highly trained professionals led by partner Kimberly C. Lau are prepared to act quickly on your behalf. Our experience includes trials, arbitration, mediations and appeals in both state and federal jurisdictions.

We understand that time is of the essence when you are faced with defending and bringing a disciplinary charge. Our experienced members are ready to act in a time-sensitive manner to meet the evolving school disciplinary needs our clients demand.

Learn more.

FEATURE STORY

U.S. Department of Education Launches New Title IX Resources for Students and Institutions as Historic New Rule Takes Effect

On August 14, 2020, U.S. Secretary of Education Betsy DeVos launched new resources to help students and schools understand the protections provided by the Department of Education's (DOE) historic regulation on Title IX.

The rule extends many new protections against sexual harassment, and strongly safeguards the rights of all students, including the right to due process. The DOE also launched a new web site that provides a one-stop resource for this key information, including how to file a complaint, an overview of the rule's protections for survivors, and a detailed webinar on how schools can fully implement and uphold the new provisions in the law.

Learn more about the key provisions of the Department of Education's new Title IX regulation in this post on our College Discipline microsite.

IN THE NEWS

Kimberly C. Lau Featured in VICE News Video on Changes to Standardize Title IX Proceedings on Campus

Kimberly C. Lau Featured in New York Times Article on Lawsuits Aiming to Block DeVos's New Sexual Misconduct Rules

Title IX and College Discipline Practice Authors New York Law Journal Article on New Regulations Demand Due Process for Campus Sexual Misconduct Cases

Title IX and College Discipline Practice Publishes Article in Law360 on Tips for Schools Handling Title IX Cases During Pandemic

RECENT BLOG POSTS

We often write about significant cases and decisions that impact the Title IX and college discipline law landscape. Here are a few of our recent posts.

- Doe v. Univ. of the Scis., 2020 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 158684 (E.D. Pa. Sep. 1, 2020)
- Grimm v. Gloucester County School Board, Docket No. 19-1952, 2020 U.S. App. LEXIS 27234 (4th Cir. Aug. 26, 2020)

AT THE PODIUM

Title IX and College Discipline Practice Lawyers Present New York State Bar Association Webinar on the Department of Education's New Title IX Regulations

On-Demand Recording of Kimberly C. Lau's Lawline Virtual CLE Program on the Future of Title IX Under the Department of Education's New Regulation's Now Available

Kimberly C. Lau Speaks at New York County Lawyers' Association/Westchester County Bar Association CLE Program on What Schools Need to Know About The New Title IX Regulations

Learn More About the Title IX and College Discipline Team

Kimberly C. Lau
Partner and Chair

James Figliozzi
Counsel

Branden Lynn
Associate

Visit our College Discipline Law Microsite for timely information and resources on all issues related to Title IX and college discipline issues.

This material has been prepared for informational purposes only, and is not intended to provide, and should not be relied on for, legal or tax advice. If you have any specific legal or tax questions regarding this content or related issues, then you should consult with your professional legal or tax advisor.

Warshaw Burstein, LLP (www.wbny.com) and its attorneys are experienced business lawyers, regularly advising business owners, investors and entrepreneurs about business law, corporate and personal matters. The firm has the following practice areas: corporate/securities, private investment funds, banking and finance, exempt organizations, financial services, intellectual property, litigation, matrimonial and family law, real estate and construction, tax and trusts and estates. We have comprehensive experience representing a wide range of international, national and local businesses of all sizes, as well as many prominent families and individuals, in an extensive array of business and transactional matters.

© Warshaw Burstein, LLP, 2020. All rights reserved. This memorandum was prepared as a service to clients and other friends of Warshaw Burstein to report recent developments that may be of interest to them. The content is general and for informational purposes only and should not be considered or relied on as legal or tax advice. If you have any specific legal or tax questions regarding this content or related issues, you should consult with your professional legal or tax advisor. Attorney Advertising - Prior results do not guarantee a similar outcome. Throughout this memorandum, "Warshaw Burstein" and the "firm" refer to Warshaw Burstein, LLP.

FOLLOW US ON SOCIAL MEDIA

Warshaw Burstein LLP | 575 Lexington Avenue, New York, NY 10022